

IMPROVING THE QUALITY OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION UNDER REGIME CHANGE

Niklas van der Heide

Hanyang University

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Introduction
- Identified Issues
- Conclusion and Suggestions
- Questions

INTRODUCTION

- Improving the Quality of Public Administration under Regime Change
- KIPA: Korea Institute of Public Administration
- 2019

KIPA Korea Institute of Public Administration

- Regime
 - Organization of political power
 - Who has access to political power
 - More permanent than government
 - Less permanent than state
- Types of political regimes
 - Democratic Regime
 - Authoritarian Regime
 - Vladimir Putin
 - Semi-Democratic Regime
 - Transitional Regime

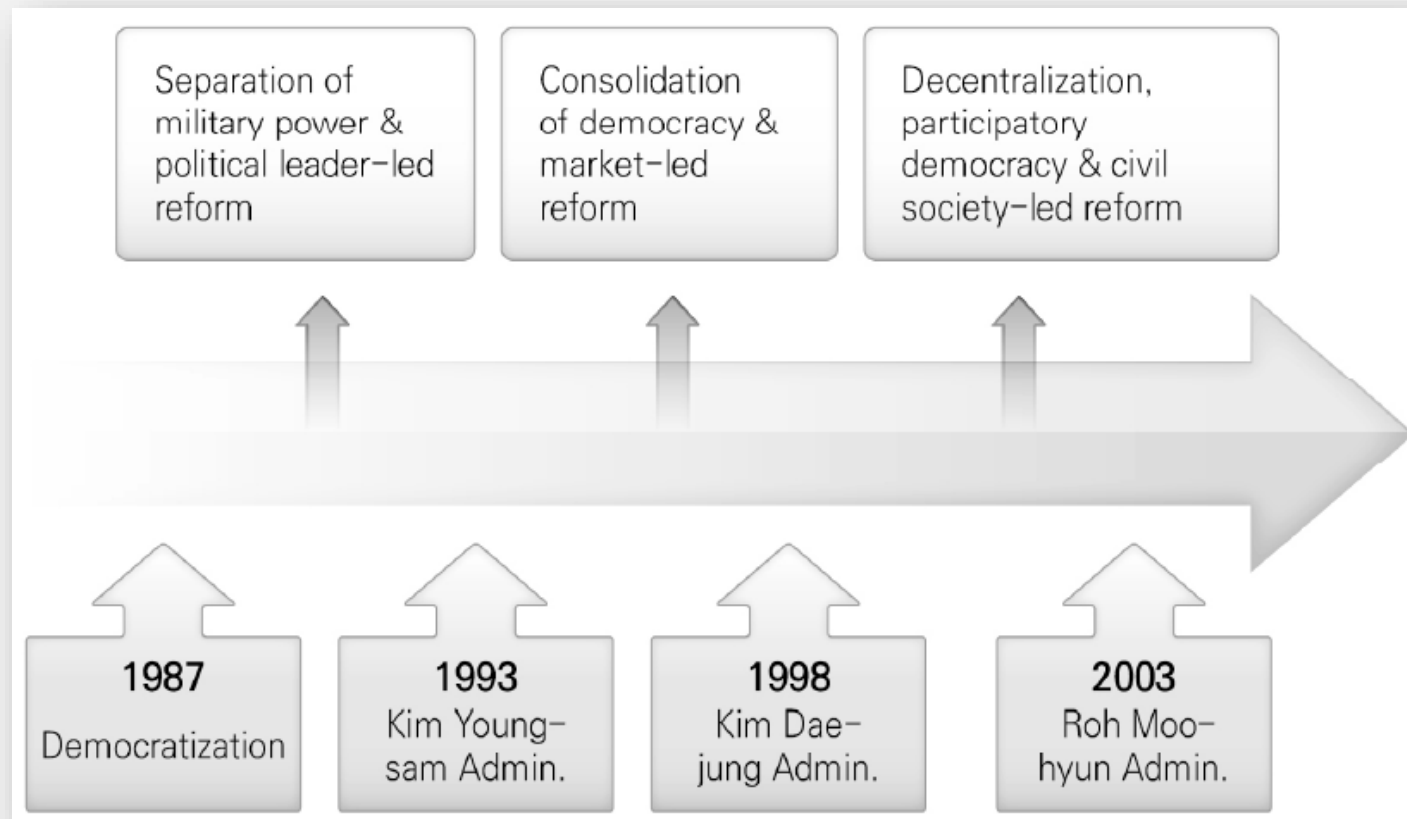

- Regime Change
 - Transition from one type to another
 - Change of ruler
- Reasons for Regime Change
 - Loss of war
 - Emperor Shōwa (Hirohito)
 - Internal political crisis

- Democratisation
 - Change to a democratic regime
 - Natural development
 - Economic development
 - Foreign-imposed regime change
 - US invasion of Iraq
 - Not sustainable

REGIME CHANGE IN KOREA

IDENTIFIED ISSUES

- Ensure Economic Growth
- New Social Movements
- International Factors
- Public Sector Reform

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

- Regime change is a continuous process
 - Accumulate experiences
- Rearrange relations with neighbouring countries
 - Russia, China
- Expect cultural change
- Adopt new economic policies
- Protect civil services

QUESTIONS?

Thank You
감사합니다